

Villa Golden Bay

Sea front villa on the world's most prestigious bay

Once you walk through the large gate of this villa you will be simply astonished by the property that unfolds before you.

With the sound of the slow waves dying on the private beach of the villa, have a seat in the open lounge, drink a refreshing cocktail and just enjoy your privileged moment.

Just imagine renting this property which is caught between the world famous hotel Du Cap and the most exclusive establishments such as the "Baie d'Oree and the "Plage Keller".

The villa "Golden Bay" is a property with a contemporary architecture; the entire property is turned towards the bay; the main bedrooms and the living room are totally open in order to enjoy the views. Not to worry; the property is completely secured by automatic shutters that can be closed individually in order to secure and to find some shade on a warm summer day.

The property consists of four bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. One bedroom enjoys a separate access from the main living area which makes this bedroom perfect for your guests or house employees.

The villa Golden Bay not only an exclusive rental, it is also a perfect property to house corporate events and personal parties such as weddings as the large terraces around the property are more than flexible for a perfect table layout and the fish in the bay are quiet comprehensive neighbours.

This villa is a perfect rental for a family searching for an exclusive villa in the close region of Cannes or a company looking to rent a villa that is more than exclusive.
