

Villa Zwerling

One of the most prestigious property on the Riviera

Welcome to paradise, you are reading the description of the most exclusive villa in the French Riviera.

Villa Zwerling has recently been built by a famous Japanese architect who conceived an art work with this property. The villa is a harmonious blend between a most luxurious habitat and the very green and clam environment which is provided by this region of the French Riviera. Bare natural stone walls set aside high-end B&O screen and a very tasteful interior design gives this property the unique touch you deserve during you holidays or to promote your company during one of the many venues held in Cannes.

The Villa Zwerling offers six bedrooms with the following layout: two bedrooms with on-suite bath & shower rooms and four bedrooms which share bath or shower rooms which are directly accessible from each bedroom.

The living room on the ground floor consist of three zones: two seating areas, a fully equipped bar, and a dining area. The living room and the south facing bedrooms all enjoy a plunging view over the Riviera coast line.

The kitchen is naturally fully equipped with all the necessities you can expect from such a property.

In addition, the villa Zwerling includes a fully equipped cinema room with projector and a large wine cellar.

The Villa is located at just ten minutes drive to the coast and the centre of Cannes is reachable within a short 20 to 30 minutes drive.

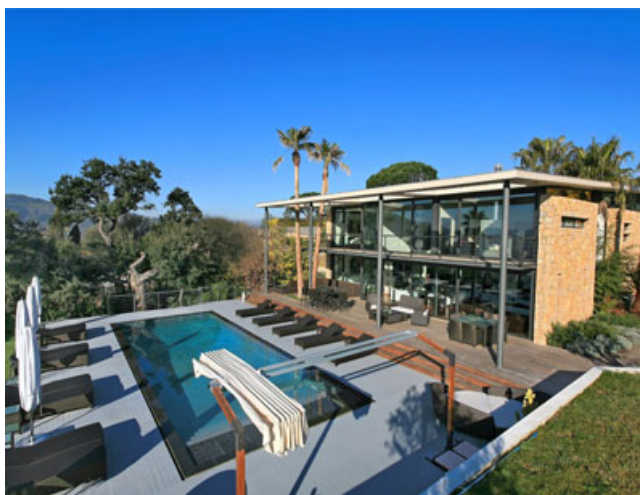

The standards and the location of this property makes this an ideal rental for both a family looking for a unique villa near Cannes, or for a corporate rental during a congress or festival in Cannes.
